

CONTACT: Edward R. Crews
Crews Communications
(804) 754-1225

RICHMOND, VA. - Marketing material for Grayson Hill took top honors in the recent Printing Industries of Virginia annual statewide competition. Grayson Hill items received the Judge's Choice Award, a "best in show" honor, recognizing the outstanding printing job done on this project by Worth Higgins & Associates Inc., a Richmond-based commercial printing company.

The PIVA awards were given during the trade group's 47th "Virginia Best in Print" competition. This year, the event attracted 1,444 entries from across the state. The awards ceremony at the Williamsburg Marriott Hotel in Williamsburg drew 400 representatives from 45 Virginia printing companies.

Worth Higgins won 41 first place awards, 62 awards of excellence and The August Andrew Dietz Jr. Memorial Award for overall printing excellence. The company has received this honor 11 times in the past 16 years.

Gumenick Properties is developing Grayson Hill. The company is a privately-held real estate development, building and management company based in Henrico County, Va. Founded in the 1940s, the company is engaged in homebuilding activities. Single and multi-family home communities built by Gumenick Properties have received enthusiastic customer reaction and rapid sales. In addition, the company owns and operates quality apartment communities in Virginia, Florida and North Carolina. Gumenick Properties has received industry recognition for the appearance, maintenance and operation of its apartments as well as the service delivered to residents by the company. The company also has extensive experience in neighborhood revitalization projects. This work has led to successful redevelopment projects that have garnered praise from civic leaders, neighbors and customers.